Matching Gifts Program

The Matching Gifts Program includes both national and local corporations that match their employees' gifts to the UNM Foundation dollar-for-dollar, thus enabling donors to double or even triple their gifts. To have your gift matched:

1. Contact your Matching Fund Administrator, Human Resources or Public Relations Office.
2. They will provide you with instructions on how to obtain your match online or provide the form which you send to UNM with your gift.
3. Look for your employer at: unmfund.org/matching-gifts.

Despite the complex issues surrounding higher education today, the University of New Mexico is committed to providing the highest level of education and a broad range of experiences and opportunities. This formula will prepare the students of today to become leaders of tomorrow across every field of study.

Khoi Le and Olena Dziuba are shining examples. They recently won the UNM Technology Business Plan Competition for their innovative concept to recycle waste vegetable oil from restaurants and transform it into clean bio-diesel fuel. Here's how they describe their experience at UNM and how the support of alumni like you has impacted their lives:

"The education, experiences and relationships I have developed at the School will accompany me in all spheres of my life. I hope that opportunity will always be available to those who are willing to work for it — it will take your generosity to make it happen."

-Khoi Le, MBA Candidate

"All of the Anderson Faculty, staff and the community are working very hard to create opportunities for students and launch our careers. Both Khoi and I benefited from scholarships provided by generous donors. The Anderson School has completely changed our lives. That's what your support can do."

-Olena Dziuba,
BBA 2010

You can take action now to change the lives of students just like Khoi and Olena. In return, they will use the knowledge and experience they gain at UNM to change the world.

Please make your meaningful gift today.

With your help, UNM will continue to produce motivated, conscientious students, bring top-notch faculty to the university, and increase the value of the UNM degree for all students, both past and present. I am confident that through your contribution today, you will not only change lives — you will change worlds.

Sincerely,
